STATESVILLE, N.C. July 8, 2021 – PRNewswire / Kewaunee Scientific Corporation (NASDAQ: KEQU), a recognized global leader in the design, manufacture, and installation of laboratory, healthcare, and technical furniture products, officially launches its EVERHUTCH healthcare brand. Developed by an experienced team of product designers and tested by local healthcare professionals, the EVERHUTCH brand is focused on meeting the growing need for products that enable healthcare professionals to better organize their workspaces and operate more effectively. EVERHUTCH leverages Kewaunee’s extensive existing manufacturing capabilities and is now available on a national level through a dedicated distribution network.

The current EVERHUTCH lineup is designed to meet the needs of both the modern healthcare setting and clinical lab space:

- STATCART - A procedure cart that can be configured into specialty carts, including anesthesia carts, isolation carts, and emergency carts.
- CORECART - A procedure cabinet that can be configured for use in areas such as operating rooms, cardiac cath labs, and interventional radiology departments.
- NESTCART - A versatile utility cart that can be used anywhere from administrative spaces to patient rooms.
- PREP AND PACK TABLES – An innovative and flexible table designed to meet a wide variety of demanding needs within the healthcare market.

“We have spent the past year developing a portfolio of products and the distribution network necessary to bring this exciting new brand quickly to market,” said Thomas D. Hull III, Kewaunee's President and Chief Executive Officer. “EVERHUTCH leverages more than a century of experience by Kewaunee, producing high quality products which are utilized in demanding environments. The healthcare furniture and storage markets are projected to grow significantly over the balance of the decade as investment is made in facilities requiring these products. I am confident that there is opportunity for Kewaunee to quickly grow market share. I encourage you to follow us on our journey using the social media links below.”
